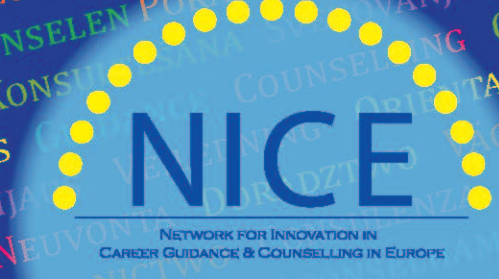
NICE Handbook

for the Academic Training of Career Guidance and Counselling Professionals



CONTENT

EDITORIAL 7

1. GOALS AND STRUCTURE OF THE NICE HANDBOOK 9

1.1. Goals 11

1.2. Structure 12

2. BENEFITS OF PROFESSIONALIZING CAREER GUIDANCE AND COUNSELLING 15

2.1. Career-related Challenges of Individual and Societies 17

2.1.1. Societal Developments and their Impact on Individuals' Careers 17

2.1.2. Career Guidance and Counselling as a Relevant Mean to Face the Changes 19

2.2. Core Arguments in Support of Training CGC Professionals in Higher Education 22

2.2.1. CGC Services Need to Meet High Quality Standards 22

2.2.2. CGC Services Need to be Driven by CGC Professionals 23

3. NICE TUNING FRAMEWORK 27

3.1. Goals of the NICE Tuning Framework 29

3.2. Tuning Methodology for Making Programmes Comparable 30

3.3. Three-Level Understanding of Professions 31

3.4. Deriving Core Competences from Professional Roles 34

3.5. Transforming Competences into Curricula 37

3.5.1. Determining Learning Outcomes in terms of Resource Requirements 37

3.5.2. Determining Level Descriptors for Learning Outcomes 39

4. Core Competences for Career Guidance and Counselling Professionals 41

4.1. The NICE Professional Roles (NPR) 43

4.1.1. Structure of the NICE Professional Roles 43

4.1.2. Task Profiles of the NICE Professional Roles 45

4.1.3. Discussion of the NICE Professional Roles 48

4.2. The NICE Core Competences (NCC) 53

5. NICE Curriculum Framework 61

6. Existing Degree Programmes in Europe 83

6.1. Quantitative Analysis of Degree Programme Structures in Europe 85

6.2. Qualitative Analysis of Study Programme Curricula 94

7. Academic Approaches to Training CGC Professionals 105

7.1 Introduction 107

7.2 Innovative teaching and learning methods 109

7.3. Teaching and learning resources 117

7.4. Assessment Methods 122

7.5. Competences of Higher Education Faculty Members 129

7.6. Some Pointers to Good, Innovative Practice in Professional Education 135

8. Trends and Developments in Career Guidance and Counselling 139

8.1. Innovation Framework 141

8.1.1. Change Drivers 141

8.1.2. Contributions 144

8.2. Life Design Perspective – Innovation in the Content of Curricula 147

8.3. Life Design Perspective – The Role of Context and Action 152

8.4. Career Counselling as a Support of Self-Organisation 156

8.5. The Role of Serendipity 161
8.6. The Role of Prevention Programmes 166
8.7. Quality Management, Assessment and Development 173
8.8. Reflexivity 179
8.9. Expanding CGC Professionals' Understanding of ICT 184
8.10. Fostering the European Character 189
8.11. Examples of Innovative Tools and Methods 193
8.11.1. A Life Design Counselling Interview Model 193
8.11.2. System Modelling 197
8.11.3. The Career Thinking Session 203
8.12. Examples of Innovative Training 207
8.12.1. Innovative Training Programme in Greece 207
8.12.2. The DICBDPEC Project 210

9. Cooperation in NICE from 2009-2012 213
9.1. Sharing – Individual Contributions in NICE 1 215
9.2. Integrating – Development of Common Points of Reference 218

10. Looking Forward: NICE 2 225

Appendix 229
Appendix 1: The NICE Core Competences in Comparison 231
Appendix 2: Related European Projects 239

Glossary 240

Partners of NICE from 2009 to 2012 246